Christopher Furey Worked At Emmanuel Fellowship Church

COTTONWOOD, Ariz. -- Cottonwood police arrested a youth pastor on charges he sexually molested and assaulted children during the summer.

Christopher Furey, 43, was arrested Aug. 20 and faces 20 counts of sex offenses, according to Cottonwood police. The charges include felony sex with a minor, sexual abuse and luring a minor for sexual exploitation.

Investigators said that among other things, Furey was having sex with a 16-year-old girl while working as the youth counselor at Emmanuel Fellowship Church in Cottonwood. Police said the crimes happened in July and August.

He's being held in the Yavapai County Jail on a $50,000 bond.
