Preacher admits to having sex with teen 2002-01-11 Click on Detroit

Encounter Left 15-Year-Old Pregnant

DETROIT-- A minister at an east side Detroit church admitted Friday that he had sex with a 15-year-old girl, leading to her pregnancy.

Prosecutors accused Delton Benson of having sex with the unnamed girl in August 2000. A warrant was issued for his arrest last March charging the 32-year-old minister at Straight Street Baptist Church with two counts of third-degree criminal sexual conduct.

Investigators said that Benson invited the teen to lunch and then allegedly coerced the girl into having sex on at least two occasions.

Police said that the teen got pregnant as a result of one of the alleged encounters that summer, but she concealed her condition from her parents for six months. They took the girl to another state, where a late-stage abortion was performed.

Investigators say that DNA taken from the fetus matched a sample that the minister provided to police.

Benson will appear in court next month for sentencing. He faces up to 15 years.
