

Ex-pastor arrested in 2012 charged with voyeurism

Tweet

Published 8:48 AM EDT Mar 15, 2013

Text Size: A A A

Advertising —

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — A pastor has been formally charged with voyeurism and child exploitation nearly a year after police say he planted two video cameras inside a women's restroom at a Lafayette church.

RELATED

- Purdue to bus students to funeral for...
- Kurtz, Catholic bishops to visit...
- Ohio parents sue teacher district,...
- Police say man who tried to rob...
- Fire destroys rural church in central...

The Journal & Courier and WLFI-TV report Tippecanoe County prosecutors filed charges Thursday against 56-year-old Robert Lyzenga in connection with cameras found at Sunrise Christian Reformed Church.

Court documents say a woman found the first camera inside what appeared to be an air freshener in April 2012 when it fell off a stall door. Prosecutors say some of videos showed girls as young as 5 years old.

A message seeking comment was left at a home phone number for Lyzenga.

Lyzenga had served as pastor since 2002.

Tweet

TAGS Pastor Voyeurism Church Bathroom

Comments

Print

Share

MOST P

VIDEOS

1. Wedc caught dash
2. Police shootir
3. Vanilla
4. Police
5. Raw vi in Shiv
6. Marrow with Le

From the we

FOLLOW

Advertising —