

FEATURED: DealChicken Publications Health Source

Find what you are looking for ...

SEARCH

ADVERTISEMENT

Vegas pastor arrested on sexual abuse charges

11:50 AM, Oct. 10, 2010 | Comments

A A

FILED UNDER

Local News
Around The State

LAS VEGAS (AP) - A Las Vegas church pastor has been arrested on suspicion of sexually assaulting two teen boys at his home.

The Las Vegas Review-Journal reports that 57-year-old Billy Eckstine McCurdy of the Revival Temple Church of God in Christ was arrested Friday on 11 sexual abuse charges.

He's accused of using his position in the church and Bible scriptures to force the boys into sexual relationships with him.

Both boys testified before a grand jury, which indicted McCurdy on Thursday of six counts of sexual assault and five counts of open or gross lewdness.

The indictment came five years after a similar case against him was dropped.

Police say McCurdy has spent a lot of time with young people, including trips to Arizona and California.

ADVERTISEMENT

Most Popular Most Commented More Headlines

- 1 RGJ Investigates: Can Jeff Spilman perform for Northern Nevada?
- 2 Nevada's acute deficit of doctors
- 3 Cheesecake Factory will take over 775 Gastropub space in Reno
- 4 Nevada history: Carlin steeped in murder, intrigue and unanswered questions \(with photo gallery\)

Most Viewed

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT